

In the name of Allah, the most gracious the most merciful

Peace and blessing be up on the most prestigious and trustworthy messenger who was sent only to be the mercy for the entire world!

Dear brothers and sisters, ASAWW

Allah SWT tells us in surat Ar Rum verse 21:

“From His signs is that He created for you-from yourselves mates that you may find peace and tranquilities in them, and He placed between you both affection and mercy. Indeed, these are all signs for people who give thoughts”

Signs for our almighty Lord -Allah SWT and his ultimate powers are countless, and we can neither keep records of them nor we can understand His bounties up on us. One of the Almighty’s unimaginable sign is the creation of wives, partners and the formation of families in general for all human beings and animals as to let the continuation of lives to keep going.

The families are the most important subjects and the focus of our speech today, because not just being the only unique dynamic part of life and its establishment but a crucial identity of all nations as well as past and present generations too.

For this reason, people are in struggle days and nights in order to form both a happy and a prosperous family this is because the only happiness you can acquire is within the family where there are no issues or without having a major inconsistency in between.

A family can not be formed with male or female only but in fact, it must be shaped with both together in accordance with the rights and responsibilities of both on one another. Islam has been emphasizing on the family lives a lot, it hopes that the foundation of each families is based on truthfulness, respect, and affections between them.

In addition, Br Shex Bahadin had focused on the rights of women over men or right of wife on her husband in his previous speech so with the help of the Allah the almighty SWT, I will be talking about the rights of men over women or husband over his wife in the hope that we can keep the balance of equalities and avoid any confusions.

With all due respect to both genders, its believed that the majority of family issues are the fault or underperformance of husbands because they are the driver of this small life ship which is surrounded with waves, obstacles and uncertainties in the sea!

My respectable sisters, how should the women perform her roles at home:

1) Women must obey their husbands only if they are not asked to cross boundaries of Islam.

Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) narrates from the beloved prophet (PBUH) who was asked “which woman is the best?” He said, the Woman who pleases her husband when she sees him, she obeys when he asks her, and do not contradict him in himself and his money which he hates to waste. Authentic by Imam Ahmed.

Imam Ibn Taymiah tells us in his book of rulings or fatwa page 32 and 263 says, there is nothing more obligatory for women after obeying Allah SWT and the prophet (PBUH) to abide her husband.

2) Sleeping arrangement to its full extend where women are not even allowed to observe the none obligatory fast without a prior permission from her husband ,if it was necessary to do so.

3) Anyone whom husband disapproves to be mixed with or isn't comfortable with ought to be avoided this means you should not visit one another.

4) Getting out of the house especially going on a trip without a permission from your husband is not permissible.

5) Its an obligatory for respectable women to obeys their husband. Allah SWT tells us in surat At Tahreem verse 6:

“Oh you who have believed, protect yourselves and your families”

6) Serving husband, children and the family home is your duty as a woman to obtain it.

7) The fairness of spending husbands' wealth wisely and avoiding any potential lavishness.

8) Be discreet and trustworthy in your home always and never tell anyone (Including member of families) anything secrets which may be related to your family.

9) Bringing up children in the best way possible

The Second speech.....

Some of the most common issues which are affecting families and elements of what woman can do to put things right:

1) Being a way from the religion of Islam and its principalities are the cause of family disintegration

2) Establishing families based on deceptions and cheating instead of honesty, affection and truthfulness

3) Never accepting what you have or get given because it should be borne in mind that half of your happiness would be to do with you accepting happily for what you have.

4) Staying away from all influential, corrupted episodes which destroy families apart, reduce using mobile phone and avoid using facebook, especially when your husband comes home from work.

5) Not to wear inappropriate clothing which are none Islamic and disassociate with those people and families which have devil intentions.

6) Avoid creating issues about financial support for your families especially you parents and treat one another with disrespect. Having low eyes on families of one another is an integral part of family break up.

7) Maintaining respect and good personal characters for both and be friendly with your husbands' guests and visitors.

8) Avoid competing with other families, copying what others are doing because every family is different so such a satanic act will split up families.

In conclusions, the real advice for all sisters are, please do not destroy your home life for anyone as most people would envy you for what you have.

Our most beloved prophet (PBUH) tells us that "If a woman observes her five times prayer, keeps her fast during the month of Ramadan, keep herself pure and chastised, and obeys her husband, she will be called to enter paradise from the door of her choice!" Authentic by Ibn Haban and Albani

May Allah keep our muslim families strong, happy and integrated. Oh Allah, keep us away from those who possess devil intentions and have bad influence on good families-Ameen
